2018 30TH AWARDS FOR PACKAGING INNOVATION

ENTRY DEADLINE EXTENDED: APRIL 27, 2018

THERE'S STILL TIME to enter your packaging innovations in the industry's longest running, independently judged competition!

DEADLINE EXTENDED TO APRIL 27, 2018

Dear Packaging Innovators,

The 2018 30th Awards for Packaging Innovation continues the DuPont Awards for Packaging Innovation program established in 1986. Dow is carrying on the tradition of providing an exceptional awards program with a global perspective across design, engineering, retail, converting and academia.

The deadline for the 2018 30th Awards for Packaging Innovation has been extended to April 27, 2018. We have received requests – for a variety of reasons – to extend the entry deadline, so please use this extension to submit your packaging solution today and give it the recognition it deserves!

Continuing the fine tradition, the 2018 30th Awards for Packaging Innovation remains the industry's longest running, independently judged competition. Many consider it "one of the most prestigious awards program in the packaging industry." Your packaging ingenuity could be a recipient of a Packaging Innovation Award!

Deadline for submissions is April 27, 2018. Don't delay!
